

Whitestown Welcomes You

Location & Overview

Whitestown, Indiana is conveniently located right off I-65 and just a short, 20-minute drive from both downtown Indianapolis and the Indianapolis International Airport. Our location makes us a perfect place to live and do business just outside of the 15th largest city in the United States.

The trail has an important link to American history, as both the Lincoln Inaugural Train and the Lincoln Funeral

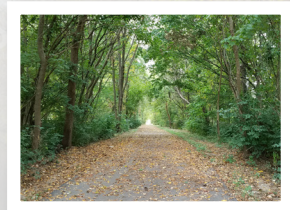

Train traveled that exact route through

Whitestown in 1861 and 1865. According to historians, a hundred mourners gathered around a single bonfire in the new town to pay their respects as the Lincoln Funeral Train passed through at 1:07 am on May 1, 1865.

From our humble beginnings, Whitestown has boomed into a flourishing community that boasted a growth rate of 25.4% in 2014 alone, earning the title of fastest growing community in the state of Indiana for the 6th year in a row.

Whitestown was also recently ranked 7th "Best Place to Purchase a Home" in the entire country by the National Association of Realtors, so you made a smart choice!

Thanks for growing with us!

History & Today

Whitestown was named in honor of Albert S. White (1803-1864). White was a United States Senator from Indiana and a leader in the movement to abolish slavery in the United States. He served in the national House of Representatives from 1837 to 1839, and in the United States Senate from 1839 to 1845.

Mr. White was also the president of the railroad built through Whitestown.

Today, the Big Four Trail celebrates our rich past while repurposing that former historic rail line into a walking/biking path for our residents.

Town Limits

Whitestown has grown so much in the past few years that the post office hasn't quite caught up. Although the postal addresses of some of our newest businesses say Zionsville, they are indeed in Whitestown. If you dealt with the Town of Whitestown for your permits or your utilities, then you are in the Whitestown town limits. See a map of our Town Limits here.

Government

Whitestown strives to be the most transparent and proactive local government in the state of Indiana. All of our Town Council Meeting documents are made public and published online at our website: www.whitestown.in.gov. And in an effort to teach young people about local government, we have recently started a new Youth Council. We'd love for you to get involved!
